Sunday, June 3, 2012

Transcript by Annalie Cummings with Robyn Ehlert and Steve Richards.

Panel discussion with ancient aboriginal healer, Steve Richards. Panel includes Randy Maugans, Steve Richards, Duncan O'Finioan, Miranda Kelly and Annalie Cummings

Steve: Now, you've got, that's the, that's the entity. The Spirit, the moment it becomes into a Spirit, it now chooses to come into a vehicular, into a molecular vehicle. It may be the Spirit of a tree, it may be the Spirit of a dog, it may be the Spirit of a human. It comes into that vehicle. It now has a physical vehicle in this molecular structure world. So that is its vehicle. It can evolve from that. The Spirit can move into the firmament and the gases and the liquids and the rocks, and the plankton and then the plant life and the insect life and then the animal life, and then the human life. And eventually it evolves into another form again.

Now, when the spirit comes in the vehicle, this vehicle is allocated to it. It's vehicle. But through ritual stuff, what takes place is a Draconian is also activated, and he has now got the born rights. He enters the vehicle with the Spirit, and he'll traumatize the Spirit. Now with that, each one of those can be programmed with a program to be taken over. So it's a Draconian in there with a program – you can have many separate dimensions in there with a different Draconian programmed to separate dimensions and when they take over your vehicle, because you've been programmed, they can switch to a different dimension. And he takes over, he'll carry out his program. These beings can be brought up on the table. And they can be taken out. They're violating law of LORE.

Annalie: I bet that sounds like sweet, sweet music to your ears Miranda, doesn't it?

Miranda: Oh, does it, boy howdy. But another question I have is, so when these get attached to a person, is there, does there have to be on some level an agreement from the original Spirit of the person that they're attaching these things to? Some agreement on some...even if they're not aware that they're making the agreement.

Steve: What takes place here, and you've got to go back and have a look...we've got a bit of noise here again, sorry... it's not necessarily agreement but it's traumatizing the Spirit. If they're traumatizing the Spirit then the program, the soul can be programmed. If they traumatize the Spirit and then something in there has got a program, and then they externally program the soul, then the soul accepts what's in there, and the thing in there has its own program. Now it's got in the vehicle. Sometimes it's like a bus-load of people in there, and you're driving the vehicle and you've got a whole bus-load of other beings in the back. Every one of them in there wants to take over. 'Get aside, I'm driving the bus today, thank you very much.'

Miranda: Gotcha.

Steve: One of these other beings take over.

Miranda: Gotcha, thank you.

Annalie: Steve, you had talked about the Draconians, and earlier in the beginning of our conversation you mentioned that we're in this, that we're entering this period of conjunction, where we've got to get rid of our 'stuff' and sort out our 'stuff' and how best can we do that with, you know, driving as fast as possible and staying reasonable, as Miranda and I and Duncan probably know. And you mentioned also when we spoke the other day this inter-dimensional war that's going on, on our planet. And I was kind of hoping you could maybe tie together this idea of the Draconians running the show through people, these entities running the show through people at the highest levels of government and how this is all going to play forward through this conjunction that you talked about. If that's okay Randy, I mean I may be jumping forward and...

Randy: No, I'm actually enjoying the questions, thank you, that was great. Go ahead Steve, I'm interested to hear this.

Steve: Be a couple of minutes, I've got a bit of noise here.

Randy: Sure, no problem.

Duncan: I'm still here guys. I'm just sitting here fascinated in student-mode.

Randy: Yea, that's kind of where I'm at too. I get to actually sit back and let other people formulate the questions, this is wonderful.

Duncan: M-kay, Steve has confirmed so much of what 'M' and I have discussed over the past couple of years. I mean this confirmation for us right now is fantastic.

Miranda: It really is so, so helpful, these pieces are coming together, beautifully.

Randy: Well and given what we're dealing with on an almost daily basis anymore of being attacked and assaulted psychically, and in every other way. I'm just really threading through a lot of this. Most of this is new information for me as well, because I've not been up to speed on this. I looked at Steve's website earlier and I didn't even have time to begin. So you guys are a little bit more up to speed on, on what he's talking about right now. So that actually makes it kind of good, for once I get to sit back and be almost like unschooled and learn as I'm going with it. He had a couple of big ones, I gotta say that. That's the other side of this right now, some of this stuff makes sense now.

Annalie: Well and also what he was saying about these entities are really coming through, and as the Spirit gets more and more traumatized and backed-down to let this stuff come through this might be why, you know, Duncan you talk a lot about how you're able to see the demonicos, you know walking down streets and stuff. And there was just this incident the other day in Miami I think it was, where there was some guy who stripped naked and he was eating another man's face.

Duncan: Yea, I saw that.

Annalie: And, you know, then they say, 'oh it's cocaine-induced psychosis.'

Randy: You've got to be kidding me!

Annalie: Yea that's what they were saying and I said no this is exactly, this is the Draco coming RIGHT forward, the human gets totally traumatized back in the corner and then, you know, they just play out. I mean, humans don't eat other humans' faces. I don't care how much cocaine you've had. You know, and so this is where I think that what Steve has to say can be really helpful to help us navigate this obscure and strange world that we're inhabiting right now.

Randy: Well this is another layer too, because we've not talked on this show about Dracos much. And I'm real interested to learn more about it. Because one of my questions to Steve was going to be 'where's the pyramid?' We know that we're dealing with a hierarchial structure here. I mean there's a reason for the evil that's running rampant right now. And I know that everyone on this call has tasted that on one level or another. But at the same time it's hard to get to the head of the hydra. And I'm kind of mixing metaphors here.

Miranda: In a good way though. It, I agree.

Annalie: It might well be a hydra, you know.

Steve: Okay, we'll just get back to the question there about the inter-dimensional stuff. And our world itself, and, and you go back and look into history way back in time, our world was never what we've been taught it was. I mean you've really got to go, even the early biblical part it talks of the Gods coming from the heavens. You've got Anu. It talks of the Nephilim up here on the Earth. The interesting part is it says and after 144,000 years is the Nephilim uprising. Well, you know, no one's looking at, at exactly what it's trying to tell us. It's giving us the universal keys in amongst it.

And to understand that, you, you've got... as I said about the pyramid structure of an agreement of somebody we're working with. Once we get that, there's a torus field around the base of that. But the base of that pyramid's a square. So, if you take the top of the pyramid itself and go into the Fibonacci mathematics and do your three cycles around it, the cycle of the very top is, is the cause, the next cycle when it comes around is the action, the next cycle around that is the reaction, and the next cycle at base is the effect, which is the entity. But, mathematically at the very top is the zero and at the very base there, at the corner point at the bottom of the square is 144. That represents one to the square.

Randy: Ooo, that's a real interesting number, thank you.

Steve: And the square is the invisible world of matter. It's the first form of matter, is a square. But under the pyramid it now drops down into the cube. In the Platonic geometry 144. From the invisible world of matter to the visible world of structure. Then from structure it takes on form tetrahedron icosahedron dodecahedron, octahedron – there's a crystallization formation which is locked into the 144 – and at the end of the three cycles of time, zero, zero, zero, three cycles of time, the Nephilim went back to where they came – there's a conjunction. And the key to soul has been saying 144,000, it's telling you after one to the square to the cube and at the end of the three dimensions, which is August next year, time will loop itself.

And this is why everybody, this is why things are coming up with people right now. This is why... they're panicking right now. They want to keep as many souls in this game as they can for the next cycle of time. It's a whole range of things are taking place right now in our world. It's a very important time next twelve months. But as I said, there are a number of different beings out there struggling for this time-space location, this planet. And we were, we were...this planet was designed for one thing, originally. When the beings came here originally what was the whole idea of the human species being created? First was the nephilim, the giants here, then they made a new species the adapta, one to adapt to a way of life. And then the Adama, oh hang on Adam lived for nine hundred and thirty years as Adam was an Adama, Noah lives to nine hundred and fifty years he also was an Adama... Abraham a hundred and seventy six years. Why was man produced? To mine this hunk of rock? Well that's interesting. I see the economy of our world right now crashing, going downhill, and you'll see mining going through the roof. Where are your minerals going? So there's part of it.

Miranda: I think all of our minds are blown right now. I think my brain's leaking out my ears, in a good way. That's great information.

Randy: Okay, you, you really just unraveled something there that's uh, I don't think many people understand the importance of this 144 and 144,000. So, one more time so I understand you, tell me the significance of that again Steve. Because THAT was beyond interesting to me.

Steve: Oh, okay, to understand that let's look at the Fibonacci mathematics. And Fibonacci mathematics, you start with point zero to one. Zero and one is one. The one and the one is a two. The two and the one is a three. The three and the two is a five. And it continues to exactly 144 after exactly three cycles. Any number in the sequence, take a five plus the eight equals thirteen. The past and the present equals the future, the past and the present equals the future. All the way through, until you get 144. At the base of 144 is the square [phone rings], sorry, excuse me for one second, just excuse me one second.

Miranda: Wow.

Annalie: That just totally made the 'war for the souls' part that you talk about Duncan, click.

Randy: That's what I was thinking. Duncan, what did we talk about going way back to our first interviews? What this battle was about?

Miranda: Yes.

Duncan: Exactly.

Miranda: And souls.

Duncan: About the souls, who's gonna control the most souls after this period is over.

Steve: Yea, sorry, so we'll get back to where I was. Visualize, visualize the Fibonacci now OVER the top of the pyramid. And, remember the pyramid and you've gotta go, and if I look at this in religion I thought this is interesting because, you know, to me, I find that, you know, you've got the Gods in religion, the Gods in religion is trying to say, 'don't ask questions, just obey.' Total dictatorship. And then you've got Jesus trying to say, 'the key is within you.' Equal opposite.

Randy: Yes.

Steve: Now what takes place is if you stop and you have a look through the Fibonacci sequences of it, and your three cycles of time and then take your pyramid. The first is the singular, the second is duality. Well isn't that interesting. Did, did Jesus not say in his, in his teachings, 'if any two agree so be it.' There's the integration. Did he not say, 'the most powerful thing in the world is the tongue?' There's your square, first form of matter -- and the invisible world now set into play. Which is the base of the pyramid. There's the square in the invisible world. Now it moves into Platonic geometry into the cube. And from the cube goes the tetrahedron, icosahedron, dodecahedron, octahedron. It now crystallizes in the cellular structure of the being. Now there's your trapped energy, coming into life-form.

Randy: Now you're saying plutonic energy not Platonic, right?

Steve: Platonic geometry.

Randy: Plutonic geometry?

Steve: Yes, Platonic geometry.

Annalie: As in Plato, right?

Randy: No I'm reading that as Pluto, the planet, not Plato the philosopher.

Steve: Yea, Platonic.

Randy: Okay.

Steve: Platonic geometry. Just go and look up Platonic geometry and you'll see from Platonic geometry goes, you know tetrahedron....

Randy: Yea, Platonic solids, right?

Steve: That's it, that's it.

Randy: Got it. Got it. Got it.

Ed note: There was some misunderstanding in the conversation here. The term Steve is using is Platonic geometry, as in the geometry of solids described in Euclidian geometry. See: [http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Platonic\_solid for further clarification and the structures being described.]

Steve: And that's the form, so of the square. Well, it moves first from the, from the two singulars, to the integration of the triangle. Now when you control the game, two is the pyramid. The cycle over the pyramid is the Fibonacci down to the 144. But the base of the pyramid is your square, then the square into the cube -- which goes from the invisible world to the visible world. Now we're in the visible world of structure. Now structure multiplies by itself to crystallization there's form. Look at man. Man is, you know, eighty or ninety odd-percent water. What happens when you crystallize water? Ice. Solid. Ridge-al. Well you look at people out there today. 'You can't tell me, I know it all.' Rigidity. Look at the solidity and rigidity of them. They've gotta from ice back to water back to steam, because only the steam can pass between the dimensions. Programmed, programmed. The rigidity is programming. Total programming your way of thinking.

Randy: That's why we think in terms of Spirit as something being sort of a mist. Or, or what you just said there -- steam.

Miranda: Yea.

Steve: That's correct, that's correct.

Steve: And the funny thing is when we start clearing people, and this is I say this is where, Darwin theory thrown out the window because Darwin is into limitation. It's only genetically looked into stuff. You get other beings, other forces in the bodies and you'll see in their features. You take them out and watch the features change on the table.

Randy: Yes. And entities that we see sometimes tend to have this same character. I've experienced repeated entities that were really nothing more than what I perceived as shadow. And yet they were very real, and could become very real.

Steve: When people have got those in them at times, and I'm not saying all. I mean at times you will see them in certain people. It's the same as sometimes you'll see animal Spirits in certain people. Look at their features. You take out the animal Spirit and watch their features change.

Randy: Yes, yes I've recounted a couple of times to people how I've looked at people or beings or entities and I knew I wasn't seeing what everybody else was seeing. I was seeing something else manifest.

Miranda: Steve you said something about how they want to keep as many souls here as possible for their purposes. Can you talk a little bit more about, why that, why, well a) why, well, I think we know why the kundalini is going all crazy right now with the world but why they want the... as many souls as possible?

Steve: Well, first off, stay away from opening up kundalini. The moment you open the kundalini, and I'll guarantee you'll be bringing up Draconian or reptilian stuff up through your spine, waiting there to take over the vehicle. Now, second thing is humans, Spirits in human bodies are a fascinating thing. We are one of the most powerful things in this universe, as a Spirit. But we have forgotten how to improvise and rearrange this universe to conform to our reality.

Now when you start getting out of other people's reality into your own reality, then you can create your own reality. And when you change it, and create a whole new reality, then you're not in the reality of another. You're in your reality. And we have the right to do this. Now what takes place is that, we, through emotions, create realities and energies. These are the beings that are harnessing this energy. We're like a massive battery source that, you know, that feeds energy to another dimension. So they need as many humans in physical body form to do the work for them on this physical, molecular dimension. But at the same time be able to feed off the energy of these beings.

Miranda: Is this a process, with the holographic kinetics, one way that we can protect ourselves from en masse or, individually I guess, from having this energy be harvested and used?

Steve: The greatest thing I've found with holographic kinetics is the fact that, we've recognized that we are a hologram of time. It recognizes the Spirit in the being. How can anything ever change unless it's acknowledged? If I don't acknowledge the Spirit, then it won't acknowledge me. The moment I acknowledge my Spirit, it'll acknowledge me. The moment I tell it certain things I want and let go of it, it can rearrange the universe for me and for my reality. Now the thing is – awareness. When you become aware that this vehicle you've got is your vehicle – and doesn't belong to another – then you can keep other things out of this vehicle by not letting them in.

Remember, they need you and they need your free will choice, to open the door and let them in. You open the door on drugs, well, and that groggy, that, the druggy feeling come over you and you enter other dimensions and you see things in other dimensions, you enter their world. They now have the right to reciprocal exchange of energy. They have a right to enter your world. Now you get taken over by these beings. You go and get on the piss [Ed note: Piss is an Australian slang term for beer], thank you very much. And all of a sudden your defenses are down. What takes place? These beings come and take over, 'party time, yee-ha!' But they're leaving you to hold the bag. They jump out because they don't want to take responsibility because human bodies are subject to pain and suffering. They'd rather jump in, have fun and leave you holding the bag. This is your free will and choice. If you choose to go out and get drunk, if you choose to go and get on the drugs, if you choose to open the doorways, then you're choosing to be in their game. And you're subject to laws of their game. Simple. Make changes.

Miranda: What about astral travel then? Does that, I know, I know it opens you up to all kinds of things but a lot of us do it, you know, when we sleep at night. Is that, something that allows things in too?

Steve: Let me just explain. Interesting scenario here, which I've discovered. And that is that working on thousands, I mean hundreds of thousands of clients I'd say over the forty-odd years, I've found that when people drown and they're resuscitated. When they're drowned, their Spirit hops out. And when they resuscitate them, bring them back the Spirit jumps back in, I've found in every one of those people have had walk-ins. In other words, opportunists, jump in when they've been out of their body. Because it's been vacant possession. When you go out through astral projection your body is laying there, it's a vacant vehicle. And, its like taking your vehicle down in the ghettos, and walking out and leaving it there with the doors open. What's going to happen to it?

Miranda: Something will jump in, eventually.

Annalie: Steve you had a wonderful sort of command of your space story from the other day about the layers you put and I know in the group of sort of the survivors that have coalesced around Duncan and Miranda and people are always looking for protection and how to keep their Spirit, or even their soul, if they're at that level, the sanctity theirs. And you talked the torus field as being a protective layer. Can you tell us a little bit more about that and how to command your space to keep these things out?

Steve: Okay, okay. Well, I'll give you an example of something that took place, which will you give more of an example of how this works. And, I went to an Aboriginal community where the kids virtually run the town. And what happened on the first Saturday night nearly five-hundred kids ran amok and they stole nearly everything, tents got broken in, they stole everything. Next year, Monday night a hundred and twenty kids arrive and run amok and they're panicking now. They said, 'oh my God, what's Saturday night going to be like?' So the woman that was running it was called Libby. So I said, 'Libby, I want permission from you, from the council, from the elders, and from the organizers, to take over the metaphysics of your festival.' The next morning, she came and she said, "they've all given you permission." I said, 'I thank you.' I took a stick, and I drew a circle in the sand and said, 'that is the torus field of your festival.' When you created this festival there was no boundaries. Therefore, anything is allowed in and out. I then put one of my students on the table, I called in the entity of the festival.

Now what does the government say? A.B.N of entity, name of entity --over the companies. Because anything that is created is virtually a creation, which is an intelligence, which is an entity. I then sent it back to its creation, I put a boundary in it. The boundary was anything that enters this boundary of this festival will be taken out instantly. Saturday night came around, seventy kids turn up and not one bit of trouble. You could see the campfire in the hills where the entities wouldn't bring the kids into the community because they knew they'd get taken out. I'd put up a boundary. Put a structure into place, in your reality. So the whole idea is that knowing that the field around you is your field. Knowing nothing is allowed to enter. It enters and it's going to get dealt with real fast.

The moment you have to protect yourself, you have to put out and you have to start putting something outside of your reality you haven't got it. You've got fear online. The moment you've got fear on line you're going to attract them straight into you. It's like putting a big blinker above your head and saying, 'vacancy, vacancy.' They're going to zoom right in. It's understanding that nothing can enter your space without permission. Stop giving them permission. Start acknowledging your Spirit. Listen to your Spirit. How many people listen to their Spirit? And they're giving thanks to guides and Gods and everything outside their reality and not thanking the person that's giving them all the information – their own Spirit? How would you feel, if you was a poor little old Spirit there and you're trying to give the person all the right directions in life, and they're thanking everybody else? And ignoring you? You'd kick your feet up and say, 'okay, you want to run the show you run it. And when the manure hits the fan, you call me.' [Ed note: As in the saying, 'when the shit hits the fan.']

Miranda: So just by being aware, and setting the intention, and being aware of your Spirit, and what the boundaries are, and what belongs to you and what's your responsibility you can protect yourself from these things coming in?

Steve: By telling your Spirit, 'this is my vehicle, Spirit don't let anything in this vehicle, I do not invite anything in, do not let anything in the space of this vehicle.' By laying out that, speaking to it, this is your field. Between you and your Spirit made that agreement, 'thank you, nothing's allowed in, if it gets in, it's going to get dealt with.' You may already have a lot of stuff in there, in other dimensions, in separate dimensions. There're probably many layers of dimensions within you that's let things in from the past. But when you stop feeding these things, it's interesting, when you become aware and you want to make changes, and you decide to stop feeding these beings, then they're not going to obtain energy. If they're not going to obtain energy, they're not going to get fed, they'll have to starve, or find somewhere else to go to get fed. So eventually, they're not going to hang around, are they?

Miranda: Right. I think that's another really important thing.

Randy: Yea. Steve, you mentioned how in the terms of this festival you had gone to, to the elders of the community. It sounds like there are key linkages or key people that line up in terms of authority or being able to give permission in this area. How would you identify those people? Obviously here you have, what, a tribal council? So you've gone to the tribal council, they, in effect, have authority over this event and over the people who will or won't enter into it.

Steve: Okay. If I decide to form a company, and I got together with two or three other people, their intent and their ego will create the entity at the structure of that company. That entity, once created, a body of intent of all three of that company, of their intent and their ego, will always be part of the entity that creates that company. It'll never change.

When you go into community, they organized this festival. Therefore, they were the creator of this festival. Therefore, I'm entering the game of someone else's creation. Therefore, I need the creator of that creation's permission to activate that dimension. You can't invade the space of another without authority, because the moment you enter the game of another, you violate lore. The moment you violate lore by entering into the game of another, it can be taken over by whatever's in that game. This is why this is so important for people not to be playing around with other dimensions. There's so many people that think they know what they're doing and they have no idea what they're doing. Now let's go back, let me just explain some of the earlier cases.

Randy: That was really important what you just said there. Because I've encountered people on forums and chat rooms who are doing astral projection, and all kinds of spiritual travel, and when I've posted on groups and have said, 'you have no idea what the hell you're playing with here,' I've been smacked down. This happened on probably Project Avalon forum or Project Camelot forum.

Steve: Let me explain a couple of cases. Very first time, when I started dealing with this, you know, one, in my early days, you know I was a pretty wild bummer as a young bloke, and I was riding bikes. And what took place was I rode over to a place and I'm waiting and waiting and waiting. And I'm waiting for this guy and, where is he? And they said, "he's on the, he's doing some automatic writing." So I get him, walked in, walked up to the guy, said, 'come on,' hit him on the shoulder. I got picked up and thrown thirty feet through the air by an invisible force and landed on the couch. I land on the couch. I wasn't afraid. I thought, 'wow, okay, I get the hint, I'll wait.' I was fascinated what took place.

Well I didn't understand in those early days what had taken place. Today, I realize, he had made an agreement with an entity to do automatic writing through him. I invaded its game, and it just threw me out of the game. Now, what takes place, when I started doing deeper into these areas here, I'm working with a guy and he's watching what I'm doing and he thinks, "if you can do it I can do it." Went out and tried it with his wife. A week later he comes home, can't find his wife and daughter. He opens the cupboard, he finds his daughter in the cupboard with her throat slit. His wife didn't even know she'd been taken over and done it. When she found out she went and committed suicide. That was the first I became experienced, began to understand what these forces can do.

I'm called in by an Aboriginal woman to head up to Cairns and up to Cooktown to work on a lot of suicides that are taking place. I arrive at six o'clock in the morning. Her son hangs himself at four o'clock in the morning. Another woman takes out the other, took out of the game. I get up to Cooktown, the daughter hangs herself, she's still alive. I cut her down. We put her on the table, first thing comes up is the entity. And the first thing it says is, "you can't have her, she's mine. I'll take her tomorrow, I'll take her next week, she's mine." I said, 'be buggered you will, we'll have you out of here in five minutes, step aside, let's find out where you came from.' I enfolded space-time, dealt with it, dealt with the entity, took him out, five years later she's got three little kids and she's doing great.

We're dealing with forces that are real, and very powerful. And you've really got to understand what you're dealing with. You play around with things you don't know, you get taken over. Because remember, one of the laws: he who enters the game of another is subject to the laws of that game.

Annalie: How does this link to the invisible world of Spirit, when you were talking about the Fibonacci sequence and the pyramid and that, coming into the visible world of matter? And more and more we're seeing these entities appear full-fledged, full-force, we're seeing that. How do we navigate this time that we're in where those two worlds are really blending in ways that are... challenging?

Steve: Again, my thing is to understand who you are. Know who you are, know the fact that we are Spirits. You know I look at Aboriginal culture. And even today its still going on up in the Northern Territories where they're still taking away kids from the families. The whole idea of the stolen generation was to stop the knowledge from coming down. In, in my reality, in my reality I know the Aboriginal culture was one of the most powerful spiritual cultures on the planet, or on the face of this Earth. How do you stop it? How do you stop the knowledge? The knowledge used to be passed from father to son -- this great knowledge? You take away their children. And you take away the children and the knowledge isn't passed down. Instead, you're programmed by the church in other realities. I go into communities today and they say, "we were evil before Jesus came." I said, 'rubbish. You know, you knew lore.' And there's a big difference. The programming and what the church has done to these communities today, has a lot to answer for.

Miranda: Yes.

Randy: Yea well the churches are simply part of a religious system, and when you're talking about Christianity, and I can speak to this first-hand. That was completely destroyed long before what we call the Roman Church. The, the, the teachings of Jesus were buried within a half-century of the time that he left this planet. So, in, in effect religion was taken over, has taken over what would have been the proper role of spirituality. I'm going to follow-up that with something that I noticed you talking about -- the Aboriginal people being the oldest, I guess, civilization, on the planet. And, do you believe that the Aboriginal people are our linkages back to more ancient civilizations such as Atlantis or Lemuria?

Steve: Well, interesting because I had an unusual case about a year ago. And, I was in Western Australia, and I was asked by the elders to clear Rottnest Island. Now, Rottnest Island was an Aboriginal prison island. They brought Aborigines from all over Western Australia they couldn't handle and they stuck 'em on this island. And, we went on the island, you know, I don't get emotional, I'm a pretty solid sort of being, and the elders are saying this is man made where you stand, this line here is our island. The moment I stepped on the island, whoooo, I felt about three thousand of the Spirits hit me in overwhelm. And I had tears running down my face. And I said, 'hold on, hold on slow down we'll get to you in a minute, we'll get to you in a minute.' And, and we went and we cleared quite a number of things off the island. And, I had quite an interesting thing at a quarter-past eight.

I went to leave. The woman's house I was staying in, her daughter, in a high-rise unit in Perth, the TV shut down the phone shut down and the computer shut down at a quarter-past eight. So, I automatically look at that and say, 'all right, someone's trying to get my attention.' So the next day we went back to this unit. We went up there and I surrogated one of my students. I surrogate the building, I surrogate the area, and what came through was a tribe thousands of years old. And they said, this is the exact words, "an alien race interbred with us thousands of years ago. We want you to go back in time and change that so it can never happen in our future." So we went back and we changed that dimension from ever happening in the future cycle.

But that wasn't what shut down the computer. Then he said, "whoa, haven't seen this one before." I said, 'what is it?' He said, "it doesn't have form," he said, "its pure energy, but its conscious." So I said, 'I hereby command you: come forward, come forward now. Why'd you shut down the phone, TV, and the computer in this unit? And why'd you invade the unit and shut it down?' "We didn't." I said, 'yes you did. I want to know why'd you invade the unit, shut down the TV, the phone, the computer?' "We were here first." And then all of a sudden I got a flash. Oh my God. Every forty inches is a ley line. Ten stories up was their dimension that they live in. This unit's come up ten stories up into their dimension. And they wanted them out of their dimension. So I said 'well, how can I do that?' And they said, "move the ley line." So I moved the ley line out over a golf course and we had the student focus on it and moved the ley line. Instantly, in doing that we felt the energy change, they were content, happy, and, we left it at that. So there's a whole range of other things in other dimensions out there that we are really still just learning.

Miranda: Steve is this something that you, I, I understand that you train other people to do this. Is this something that people could learn how to do? And go out and help people with this process – healing through holographic kinetics?

Steve: I've trained five-hundred and twenty students and I've had people from now, twenty-two separate countries fly in after one session with students overseas. After one session feeling how powerful this is, they've flown in to learn this in this country – apart from New Zealand because I've been to New Zealand to teach. And now I haven't been out of the country, but I have twenty-two countries now with people in them that have been trained how to do this. Because there's nothing like it out there.

Miranda: No, there really isn't. And it's so powerful and amazing, I just would love to see it more out there.

Annalie: Steve, now, aren't you at the end of summer?

Steve: Sorry, say again.

Annalie: Aren't you coming to the United States and Canada at the end of summer 2012?

Steve: I am attempting, I am attempting to do that in July/August. I'll be possibly starting to organize all that pretty soon. Putting out the brochures and putting out the feelers to all the people in the internet, so I can get a group on the East Coast, West Coast and possibly someplace central, at this stage.

Randy: Hmmm, that's very interesting.

Miranda: Isn't it though.

Randy: I know what you're thinking.

Miranda: Yep, I know.

Randy: I know what you're thinking, yea.

Steve: One of the important things I find, I find that your government is the same as our government. We've written to our government, we've written to your government...

Randy: Absolutely.

Steve: We've written to the Minister of Defense here, about your soldiers, and our soldiers here are the same. We get letters back saying, "our psychiatrists know what they're doing." My question is, 'if they know what they're doing, what are they doing?' Because they're definitely not clearing these other forces that have taken over these soldiers.

Randy: No, no, no, no, they don't know what they're doing. I can tell you what they're doing because I have a, I have a member of my immediate family who is PTSD. And, he has been in and out of VA hospitals repeatedly for over ten years, using their drugs -- the white man's drugs -- using the white man's psychiatry, and he crashes and burns regularly. And it's just a repeating. He's, he's looping. He is literally what you described earlier in the show. And we know people like this on, on a number of different levels. But it seems like for service people, the care that they're being provided is, is simply a way to sustain the living structure without ever doing what you've been talking about here for almost two hours -- healing the Spirit.

Steve: Now here's a shock for you. You know, I had a young lad, he's only fifteen, his mother calls me up, he's in one of the hospitals, mental health ward. I go up and work on the young lad, he's an Aboriginal lad, worked with the young man and cleared up his issues. A week later the mother's phoned me and says, "they want to put him on the psychotropic drugs." I said, 'you go back to the hospital and you ask the doctor why they want to put him on psychotropic drugs.' Then she rings me and she said, "they said they believe he's got voices in the head." Well I said, 'you go back to your doctor and tell them he doesn't have voices in the head, and if he does, I'll deal with him culturally.' He doesn't. So why'd they put him on drugs? The doctor said to her, "that's what we do with ALL our patients." Now I'll tell you now, at the time he had no voices in the head. His mother emailed me a week ago, this boy is suicide, he had voices in the head because the psychotropic drugs will open wormholes to other dimensions and allow other forces in and they will have voices in the head now, and then they can justify putting him on more powerful drugs. Do you understand what's going on out there?

Miranda: Yes.

Steve: And the question is, who's running them?

Randy: Here in the United States they advertise anti-depression and various psychotropic drugs that are being used to treat people with all kinds of disclaimers. And one of the disclaimers is that risk of suicide increases with the use of these drugs. So it appears as though they know that these drugs are interacting but they don't understand, because they're only dealing with the physiology. They're not dealing, again, with the inner being at all. So, the physiologists, the doctors, the scientists, that concoct these, these drugs are simply again, dealing physiologically. They're not dealing with the Spirit. And this is why you have a cycle, which ultimately leads to stronger drugs and the potential for suicide increases as the person goes through the so-called 'health-care system'.

Miranda: They even give that to dogs here.

Steve: Yea, you take that one step level, 60 Minutes in Germany did a documentary on --- Lily, oh sorry, yea, on Eli Lilly, they admitted that Zoloft and Prozac I think were the two drugs, multiply the suicide rate by five-fold. Now I consulted, sorry, not consulted, I confronted, at a big public seminar here, one of the organizations that is pushing, promoting you know depression, and other things with all these drugs. And I said that, 'the ninety-percent of the Aboriginal kids that've committed suicide have been on drugs and medication. Are you aware the drugs you're pushing have side-effects? And are you aware that side-effects are suicidal tendencies?' The head psychiatrist said, "yes, we are aware of that, but if they feel that way they should go back to their doctor and change their prescription."

And you know, you're talking about somebody who is mentally unstable here and your top psychiatrist is saying they've gotta go back to their doctor and change their prescription. That's one. Now what took place was that, you know, I look at Suicide Prevention. And at Suicide Prevention, I confronted them last... Although I was awarded in 2005 Life Awards from Suicide Prevention, I was nominated for Human Rights Medal Award, I've been nominated for Australian of the Year. I confronted Suicide Prevention and I said, 'where are the statistics of the amount of kids that have committed suicide on drugs and medication?' "Oh, that's in with overdoses of recreational drugs." 'Why?' Cause their sponsors are pharmaceutical companies. Well I mean we've really gotta look at what's going on out there en masse.

Annalie: How do these wormholes that are attached to these drugs, are they imprinting this through, like, radionics or some kind of ritual? I mean are they actually imprinting the drugs? Or how does that wormhole for these entities to come forth happen?

Steve: Okay, okay. One of the interesting things I look at here is you've got to understand how homeopathy works and osteopathic frequencies work. And, you know equal force against equal forces become null and void. Interesting. So, I look at this, Aboriginal culture says, 'everything is alive.' So, I had a woman that comes into me from Chile. Doesn't speak good English. Her daughter said, "my mum can't sleep, she's on two lots of sleeping tablets and can't sleep." I said, 'well that makes sense, she's got two separate entities in there, they both need to keep her awake before she feeds them.' Everything's alive.

So what happens is for these drugs to be created they've got to have an intent behind their creation. The first is the law of intent and the law of agreement. So what is the intent in the creation of that drug and what's its intent? It now becomes a life-form that needs to survive like anything else. Therefore, an anti-depressant means it has to keep you depressed so you'll feed it. And when you feed it, it will make you no longer depressed. It got its food source, thank you very much. Another life-form taking over the vehicle. Stunned.

Miranda: Wow. I had a question for you Steve. I actually just got an email from somebody who's familiar with your work. And it reminded me to ask this, do you have, the people that you work with, do they sometimes feel a lot of interference or resistance or get a lot of attacks prior to coming to you because the entities know, sort of, that their end is near and try to keep the people away from achieving this healing solution?

Steve: Okay, well there's two-fold question you've got there. And I'll go into two parts of it. First off, the moment you, whether becoming aware of it or not, the moment you want to make changes, and you want to be clear of whatever's affecting you, just that intent is put out for these beings that are aware. And the moment that takes place, you're going to come under attack. And the attack's going to come from the closest people to you sometimes: you mother, your father, your brother, your sister, your husband, you wife, your friends, your neighbor – whoever they can get access to.

Randy: Oh yea.

Miranda: Mmm, hmm.

Steve: So .... they CAN drag you back in the game. Because nobody wants to be homeless.

Miranda: Well said. Thank you, that's very helpful. And very true in our experience.

Annalie: And Miranda I can say I'm actually having a session done with a surrogate as soon as we finish this, interestingly enough timing-wise, and I chose to go backpacking to get some space before this and just really tune into Spirit and wilderness is where I do that. And I can tell you one-hundred percent, last night was a doozy, I'm in my tent, its pouring rain, I'm in the middle of nowhere, and I have weird stuff visiting me.

So yea, I definitely notice with my sessions there's a beforehand period where I set out this intent, I decide I'm going to work on it, I kind of get antsy, and a little agitated, maybe some psychic attack stuff. And then I have the session, and then, because I'm doing this as a surrogate, from what I understand from Steve its much more powerful to do it in person and I hope to get that opportunity one day. But there's this period between when the session happens which is it's own sort of experience. And then before you get the transcript where you feel the lightening of whatever was cleared and you don't know why it is but it feels great. And then you get the transcript and its just this incredible, 'oh my gosh, I knew it was there, I told people it was there, it was speaking through me and they wouldn't believe me,' and now its on paper and I've got it and it's done. And so it definitely kind of has this progression. And then there's weeks and weeks of integrating and little piece by piece, and sometimes more attacks come up as I do that. But it's made my life one-hundred percent better.

And in terms of what we were just speaking of the psychiatry route. I mean I've been that route, I've been in mental institutions twice in my life – put there by family members who thought I was crazy when I was trying to tell them this. You know we, we all know that. And if we're looking at cost-effectiveness, and I bring this up only because we live in a stupidly materialistic... I mean the cost of what I've done with holographic kinetics has been point zero three percent of what I paid to try all this other stuff, most of it psychiatric stuff. I mean all the hospitalizations, all the meds, all the psychiatrists, throughout my lifetime. I'm thirty-six now. That was like a hundred and forty thousand dollars US and I've paid, you know, way, way, way less than that. Like I said, point zero three percent of that, to actually get the work done that I needed to do so I could be me. And, you know, when I first contacted you I was a complete wreck. And I actually feel like I can live my life now. And it's still an onion that unfolds but, you know, there's so many people out there who are looking for something that works and I have just been sooo grateful. To Steve, thank you and thank the Aboriginal people and their Spirit that endured all this trauma and political machination that could have, you know, closed off the opportunity. But it's just fantastic that these modalities are opening up again so that we can reclaim our dimension and reclaim our Spirit. I'm just so grateful, Steve, for helping me get my life back.

Steve: Yea, no, that's good. It's very important I think when you have the actual physical session yourself. Because the thing is, you will be back in time seeing what you did physically, you'll be there, you'll be consciously aware of what you did to create this reality of yours, back in time. And it's more impacting on you, to integrate between you and your Spirit of what you did in that back in time agreement to set this into play. Whereas with the surrogacy stuff, you're not really experiencing it yourself by seeing and being there. And this is why I find it so important with people. I only ever let surrogacy stuff be done when people are, as I said, overseas. We can't get to them.

If they can get to a practitioner then I, I'll refuse to do surrogacy because I feel that it's so important that they experience and understand their own creation to make changes to those dimensions of reality. You know some of the areas that we're doing, getting to today. Well I've worked with some of the most violent men in the prison system, even the guards are scared of them, and I said to them, 'give me the worst man you've got.'

So this guy, an example, two years old, his mother and father are alcoholics and drug addicts. He knew nothing but violence all his life because he was born under that dimension. The moment we enfolded space-time and cleared the dimension, change the dimension of time, created a new future dimension for him, instantly, the guy got up, you couldn't believe how humble that man was with gratitude -- he didn't want to be the way he was. He was stuck in time. You know I've worked in some of the mental institutions, in the prisons, where people are in there for murder with voices in the head.

Example here, I've got a, I've got a particular person, having an argument, hits the old man over the head with a saucepan, he drops dead. She panics because she's been drinking alcohol, put out for help. The moment she put out for help the universal law of intent is activated. In came the brother, the sister and the old man, they're all in there telling her what to do. I called them up one at a time, had them physically talking out of the body. I dealt with their trauma -- why they haven't moved on -- I released their trauma and removed them on. Next day, no more voices. Now she has been released because she's not mentally insane anymore.

You know I go into areas where there's been genocide in the past. And I bring all the Spirits through someone on the table, all the Spirits they tell me what took place in the genocide. I loop time, change time, take the trauma, change the past and present for the future, so it can never happen in the future cycles of time. Well each time we do this we've bettered the cycles of the future, for our future.

Randy: I have a question. In terms of, since you are located down under, and you have trained people to do this work, how would somebody find a practitioner near them that they could access?

Steve: Well when you say near them, where are they? Now if people email me and I've got somebody in the area that can, then, I'll send them on to a practitioner. Or, as I said when I come over in a couple month's time and train, I'm hoping we can get a group there that can actually work together to develop themselves as a group, as a central point, where people can come to them, and come have this work done. What, in terms of training, how long does it take you to train? The full training is seven days. And again, seven days is the tip of the iceberg. Remember I'm training at forty years of knowledge.

Everyone: Yea,

Steve: Seven days is the tip of the iceberg. It's teaching you the basics. Then what I say is, stay with your group, practice -- you get confidence in yourself in what we're doing. Work with the people that come in around you, and work with your friends at first to get the confidence. Once you get the confidence, then take the next step and then start working with clients. I've already got a couple people over there that are working, you know, Massachusetts area. I've got a couple people over there. One young lad he had a surrogate session from Robyn and Mark recently. And so impressed with it, he flew out and did my course recently. And he's flown back to America. I've had people fly in from America, from Canada, from, you know, well, England and all around the world at times to learn this, and take back to their countries. Because as I said, it is unique, it is a way. You know, the past is our future. And we have to start remembering the past.

Randy: Boy. That completely, completely seals some things that I've suspected for a long time. Even just in an abstract, you've, you've tied together some concepts here. And for the people that listen to this, you're going to have to go back and listen, I think this is a show where you have to listen carefully and listen with your heart. Because the, I'm less the interviewer on this show than I probably am the audience. And that's okay. I'm gobsmacked as they say. Anybody else have any other questions or any other things you want to bring up with Steve before we go off the call tonight?

Duncan: Only if you want to stay on 'til midnight.

Randy: Well okay, speak up there, Mr. O'Finioan. Please.

Duncan: No, I'm just, I'm just playing student right now man. This is enlightening.

Steve: Can I give you just, I'll give you an unusual case to show the difference between the Spirit and the soul. And I went to New Zealand and this lady brought her young three year-old daughter to me. And the little three year-old daughter, she's never spoken and she's never eaten. And they've got tubes sticking out of her stomach and they're feeding her through tubes. And she's got a bit of autism and the mother says, "look, can you help my daughter." I says, 'well I really don't know, I never know the outcome of anything,' I said, 'but, hop on the table.' So I cleared the mother and I surrogated the little girl into the mother. And then through the Spirit, speaking through the mother, when I've finished I surrogated her back. Mother rang me two days later and said, "look, the special school has noticed changes, the osteopath noticed changes and I've noticed changes. Can I get another session before you leave New Zealand?" And, and instantly Spirit said to me, "bring in the father." So I said, 'bring in the father.'

So the father came in, I put him on the table. I surrogate the little girl into the father. Now I said, 'first off Spirit, I want to know why the soul of the vehicle through time had the throat/chest problems.' It went back to the great-great grandfather with tuberculosis. So I cleared that dimension first off, from affecting the physical vehicle. 'Now Spirit, I want to know why'd you come into this vehicle that couldn't communicate?' "Twenty year-old, female." "Thank you. And what happened?" "I've just just stabbed my grandfather in the throat." "Thank you. What for?" "Because he raped me and was sexually abusing me." "Thank you." That instantly tells me I've got reciprocal exchange of energy. That instantly tells me I've got the Spirit of the grandfather in here and he's been stabbed in the throat. I had to bring him up, enfold space-time, change the past and the present for the future and release him. I had to bring her through, change the past and the present for the future, put her back into her body. Two days later the Mother's ringing me, she's eating, speaking for the first time.

Miranda: Incredible.

Steve: That was due to the both the soul and the Spirit integrating.

Miranda: I'm sure you must have a lot of stories like that with how many people you've worked on.

Steve: Thousands. Thousands of unusual cases.

Miranda: It just makes me a little bit angry that something this incredible and powerful has been so suppressed for so long. This, this knowledge could've helped so many people.

Steve: Well now listen I've been battling the government for ten years to try and get this in. And I'm not kidding. I've met so many 'buck passes' in my life. You know, I'll talk to someone on the line and get 'buck passed' to someone else and you know, they don't want to make changes to anything -- especially things that work. [Ed note: As in the phrase 'pass the buck.']

Randy: Well, they don't have any investment in what you're doing. This world is based on a monetary system and the medical system is based on that same model of basically sustaining people, enabling them to cope, feeding them drugs, feeding them bullshit long enough that they can harvest money from them. And then, as I said last week on another radio show, people just roll up and die on cue. I mean this is not a system of life, this is a system of death. So you're dealing on the highest level with exactly what you've been talking about. All of this harvesting of Spirits and souls that have gone on, this is all a system of death.

Steve: And the question is, as I said in the very beginning, who's running the game? And it's not of this dimension. It's beings that are being run by the dimensions at that highest level that are in positions right throughout the whole structure.

Miranda: Yea, the top of the food chain is not human.

Steve: That's right. And I believe those at the top, at times I believe that their Spirit is aware of what's taking place. I believe a lot of those in the top positions are very scared of what takes place, because they're in the game of another. And they don't know how to control the game.

Duncan: Maybe we can figure out how to do that.

Miranda: Yea.

Steve: Well that's the whole idea is, when you enter the game of another, you're subject to the laws of the game. You know you've got all these positions, these people, that have gone in through these secret societies, and through initiation rituals. The first low level is the very low-level apprentices. Next degree a more powerful entity, next degree a more powerful entity, next degree a more powerful entity, by the time they're twenty, twenty-five degrees, they're thoughts and actions are being manipulated. They'll justify why they do what they do, but, it's not their thoughts. Well they get to thirty, thirty-three degrees at the highest level, no one's home. They've been totally taken over at the highest level by these beings. They're running at the highest level. And them running under those, those are the born-rights, they're also taking the vehicles under that.

Duncan: I can, I can absolutely attest to what you've said. I've seen it too many times.

Randy: Yea me too. Yea that's kind of the story of my family.

Steve: And these beings can be cleared. The whole idea is the fact that man has forgotten how powerful he is as a Spirit. And he has to get back to understanding who he is and what he is. And believe in himself again. And, and casting out, getting rid of these things that have been running him and manipulating him at the higher level. Not being in their game, create... Look, I'm just going to show you a real interesting thing that happened last year. I'm dropping a young bloke off at school. I turn the radio on. On the radio it says, "a semi, a ute [Australian term for a pickup truck type of vehicle] and a car have had an accident on the Nerang Bridge. Traffic is blocked back to Helensvale." As I come up to Helensvale as far as I can see is bumper-to-bumper traffic. I says, 'Spirit, this is ridiculous, all right, clear the traffic, and clear it now, I have to get him to school.' Next minute traffic thins out, I'm doing a hundred down the highway, no, hardly any traffic around me. I get to Nerang, no accident, I turn left, drop him off at Merrimac School, I come back down the highway, I turn right, and here you are where I just come from is the semi, the ute and a car, traffic blocked back to Helensvale. I just create an alternate reality. How many times do you do that without even knowing it? We don't have to be in the reality of another.

Remember the dream, and you wake from the dream, and in that dream you can manifest anything into that dream. And when you die and move on next, this will only be a dream. If we can manifest in this dream, what you want. We have forgotten how to manifest realities. You know when I was a little boy, my Mother, I'd always remember she said, "don't trust the government," she said, "don't trust the banks. If you want anything in life don't expect anybody to give it. You've got to learn to manifest." And I learned to manifest. I've manifested many things in my life by understanding how to do it, which is the old cultural way of manifesting. We all have the ability. But most have forgotten.

Miranda: That is incredibly empowering information. I think that, I know that this can help a lot of people who are looking for answers. And who understand that they do have a lot of power, but maybe not how to access it.

Annalie: Well, and clear out, clear out the junk so you can remember.

Steve: Exactly. Because, because remember, all the stuff that you've taken on externally from you, was not your stuff in the first place. You've taken on all these programs in your cells, and all the cells, they see, they need to survive, they need to survive because they're alive. And everything has a right to life. So therefore, they're using you for their survival. Eventually they try and take over you, so eventually they take over the whole vehicle. Because one of the important things, that's the most powerful force will always succumb the weaker force.

So whatever you've got inside of you, that you've let in, whether they be thought-forms, whether they be life-forms, whether they be other beings from other dimensions, or they just be cellular-memory that you've locked into your self through the food you're eating. The most powerful is always going to succumb you, and take over. Until we become aware of the fact that, 'okay, is this really what I want or do I want to make changes to my life, and take back control of me?' And the moment we make that decision, then we have the right to start making changes.

Randy: And this even comes down at one level, to what we're physically taking into our bodies. This is why they're genetically modifying food, isn't it?

Steve: That's correct. And the water. I mean listen here, our country recently, our country's got a plague right now – it's all these old people, Alzheimer's going through the roof. Well then hang on, hang on, Alzheimer's going down through the roof, and you're putting flouride in our water? Let's go back, what's flouride used in concentration camps for? To dumb and numb the prisoners. And they put it in our water? So we could get dumb and numb. And then you complaining because all of a sudden there's old people coming down with Alzheimer's disease? A bit of common sense here. What's going on?

Miranda: And the vaccinations, and the chemtrails, and the schooling system, just the list goes on and on.

Steve: Now, with the chemtrails, there's interesting things. What I've found, what I've found that takes place is that everything in this universe, is alive. Whether it be the tree, whether it be a blade of grass. You know I can bring in a tree into you and have the tree physically talking out of you. People say, "how can you bring a tree and have a tree talking out of somebody?"

Hey look, watch this, you got a semi and you got a Mini. So, just say one of you is driving the semi and the other one hops into, say, a little Mini Minor. Get a set of lights and you drag. Okay. The Mini's designed to get in and out of the traffic real fast. The semi's designed to pull a forty-ton load. So, its pulling this forty-ton load down along the road, you get to the next set of lights, swap drivers. Now you're in the semi pulling the forty-ton load and now the person's in the Mini. Off again. The vehicle is designed for one thing. Your body was designed to speak to me in English. If I bring up someone from another culture into your body, their Spirit will talk to me out of your physical body in English. If I bring the Spirit of an animal into you, it'll speak to me in English. If I bring a tree into you, the Spirit'll talk to me in English, out of the vehicle, because the vehicle is designed to speak to me in English. And we can surrogate anything in this world in because anything that is alive has a life-form. And when the life-form leaves, its called 'dead.'

Miranda: So we could also, with working with the trees and the environment, this has the potential to heal our physical spaces too, right?

Steve: Oh definitely, definitely. I mean I got a, I brought some trees in and I mean back as I said on, when I was asked to clear Rottnest Island. We had a great big ol' oak tree and I went past the oak tree and I felt, whoa, I felt the tree was trying to tell me something. So I said don't say anything, I said just leave it with me. And one of the elders said, "yea, young guy died --?-- that." I said, 'I'm not worried about that, it's something else, something else, it's got trauma.' So it wasn't 'til the end and I surrogate the tree into one of my students. And what the tree said was, "they, they hung a young lad off me to use him as an example." And the tree had trauma because it was used to hang this young lad. And the tree had the trauma in it from over a hundred years ago. 'Till we enfolded space-time, bring out the trauma.

I had another case with a tree, I was in another one of the Aboriginal communities, there's this great big ol' tree. And I thought, 'by God, I'll bet it's seen a lot in it's time.' I said, 'tell me,' I surrogated the tree into one of my students, I said, 'have you ever seen anything in the last hundred and fifty years detrimental?' It said, "yes, eighty years ago, two men on horses came riding through and started shooting the Aborigines indiscriminately. Never seen anything like that before, never seen anything like that before. That really upset me," it said. So I blew the dimension, changed the dimension, and it healed itself up and it said, "when they put the bolt in me, that hurt." So I cleared that. Then we went around to have a look at the tree to have a look for these bolts, I said, 'where the hell is the bolts?' And one of the students said, "hey look there, up in the tree." And here up the tree is a great big branch, about fifty feet up the tree. And every eighteen inches, was a six-inch bolt. Now we didn't know 'til the tree told us it was in there.

Everything's alive. How can we ever have anything acknowledge us if we don't acknowledge it? Everything's alive. And that's where we go back to the drugs. When these drugs are created there's an intent in the creation of those drugs, and they're alive. They need to survive like everything else. Because, they are, they are, atoms with memory stored in them. But what I've found is when you hit something where there's equal force, crumbles null and void.

Miranda: All of this makes a lot of sense. All of this, although it may, some of the math may seem complex, the Fibonacci stuff and the numbers and all that. It really comes down to very simple truths that, that we've forgotten. That have, we've just, that at another time when we were more awake and more connected with ourselves and not so burdened with all these hitchhikers -- we knew. And just like you said, we forgot. And it's time to remember. This time in particular it's important to remember.

Steve: Okay, you just, you just said something that was triggered off, which I've just got to finish mentioning. And that was, remember before, I said the one is the singular, and the two is the duality. When duality integrate, it creates a triangle, which is the three. We speak and it starts the four -- first form of matter. Call something in, put the roof on the house, it's interesting they draw the house with the square with the roof on it, but the five-sides a pentagram. You've called something in from another dimension. That's the five. Six represents entrapment, for now it entraps itself into you. Seven represents the change. Eight, it set itself up to repeat itself over and over -- there you got stuck in time. Nine releases it. Which takes three-hundred-sixty degrees completion of that dimension, and you're in a clear other dimension of reality.

Annalie: That's a whole new way to count.

Miranda: Yea. Wow.

Annalie: It makes sense though. A lot.

Miranda: It does.

Annalie: The six, that's the entrapment, and how that number is used.

Steve: Seven represents the change. This is why, this is why, watch this, you know, and, and all you Christians out there, I'm sorry about this, but the fact is, when you're baptized its a ritual. When you're seven, it's the first change, so you dress in a bridal gown, and you're married to these beings through the common union, known as communion. And when it's the next seven years it's fourteen -- that's the time of the free-will choice. Now the free will and choice, they get you to confirm yourself to them, through confirmation. The biggest killer in our world is religion run by Draconians. It's in the ritual.

Randy: Yep. That's actually interesting what you just said about the age fourteen. That free-will choice can be impeded, or it can be allowed to develop on its own. Would it...?

Steve: This is.. Yea. And this is also why the church used to say, "give me a boy before eight," in other words, from eight years-old to fourteen, "and I'll give you a boy of God for life" -- because they can be programmed. In Sudan they take children, they program them to be programmed into boy-soldiers. From the time of eight to fourteen is the programming time - - when the physical soul can be programmed to believe the program is the normal way of life. Therefore it believes killing is normal. Now secret societies, they start the ritual stuff usually from seven years-old, seven, eight years-old, to fourteen. There's the ritual, the sacrifices. Where you're now being programmed once more upon the soul.

Randy: And this goes into why there's pedophilia in churches as well.

Steve: That's correct. But then again, then again, you know I hear them say, "you know nothing can help a pedophile." Well again, rubbish. I've worked on a number of them. They've been in prison system. And a lot of these times you find that, you know, they're guys that're stuck in their first sexual experience as a child, and they're stuck in time. Never moved on. When you enfold it, what took place at that age, and you change the dimension -- clear it -- they're no longer stuck in that dimension of time. Anything can be changed.

Randy: That was actually one of the questions I was going to ask you and you answered it. Thank you. Because, I think we've got a lot of victims out there right now who don't believe that they can ever climb out of the hell that was created FOR them, by things that happened TO them. And, this is really critical stuff. I, I'm sitting here, I feel so unprofessional, but I'm like, throw that out the window, because I'm just completely blown away by, by the scope of what you've just talked about. And we, we will talk again, definitely. And beyond that, I'd like to hope at some point, we can find a way to make it happen that, you know, we can meet with you and begin doing some training. Because, sitting here listening to this I got a vision. And, the vision is that you need people to take this out into the world right now. Almost everything else that I know of either works limitedly or doesn't work at all, or it masks the symptoms. And this works.

Steve: Well here, it covers so many areas see. Look we haven't even tipped on the iceberg. What we talked about today was only the tip of the iceberg. There're so many areas we're getting to, I mean, you know, I'll give you, give you an example here. Like some of the self-mutilation stuff that's been going on. You know, I've got a client here, she'd been self-mutilating herself. We go to the cause, the effect and straight back to India. 'Thank you. And what's happened?' 'I've just given birth to a little girl back in a past life.' 'Thank you. And what's happened?' 'Little girls are useless.' 'Thank you. And what's happened?' 'My husband's annoyed.' 'Thank you. And what's happened?' 'He stabbed me to death for giving birth to my, to a girl, not a boy. I admit I did the wrong thing by giving birth to a girl not a boy. But I can't forgive myself because I know he's going to kill my daughter and I haven't saved her.' She's still stuck in time punishing herself for not saving her daughter, by stabbing herself. The moment we went to that dimension, looked at and cleared it, instantly, the self-mutilation stopped.

I have people with psoriasis. We go back in the past and they've been burnt at the stake. Skin's dripping off their body. The last trauma was remembering their skin boiling, dripping off their body. Whatever trauma took place around death will still be online. Any trauma that took place around the death has never been cleared. It will just activate itself in this life. And once it does, it's activated as if it happened yesterday, you're back online again with the same trauma, until that trauma has been cleared.

Look, let's go back. Let's go back to the Inquisition. Why in the Inquisition did they torture you before they kill you? Because they're going to kill you anyway? They did it to get you to submit. That gives them access to the soul in the future.

Miranda: THAT is SO key. I mean everything goes back to trauma. Now we understand, on a much deeper level, why trauma has been used so much for all of this stuff. It's not just to be mean, it's not just because they're evil, it's because they know that gives them access not only in this lifetime, but when you come around for another lifetime, you're already theirs on a certain level. They know what the power of trauma.

Steve: Yes. And they're called the born-rights. They have the born-rights to your vehicle.

Miranda: Wow.

Steve: I mean I had, that's the last time my partner will ever do any surrogacy work with me. I had a guy in the prison system. And I brought him through and we had a battle-and-a-half going on the table and this thing, you know, it has the born-rights. I went back and his father was in a secret society at a high-up level, and he'd been the first-born child and had the born-rights to the vehicle. So the moment the Spirit entered, it came in. And this thing, its battling me, it's a battle-and-a-half on the table going on, 'cause it, it was determined, it had born-rights. So I took him back, I looped time, changed time, changed what the father did so it was that he never took place in that agreement, and finally went in and took him out. And gave the guy back control and was freed from him. But, on the table, it was so traumatic, for my partner because this thing was battling and throwing her everywhere.

And she didn't want to, and because she's not coming from that space you see, so, you know, I mean. Last time we did that.

So now I just pass on my surrogacy to Robyn and Mark because I don't have time to do it anymore. And Mark's a fabulous little surrogate. He's fabulous. I got another one in Western Australia, that's a good surrogate too.

And, uh, now some students are really good at it. But one of the things is, got to always remember: the variables. And the variables here are: how much is the practitioner's belief an assumption? How much does the practitioner on the table believe in assumptions? How much is inter-dimensional interference talking out of the body? How much are life-forms talking out the body? You've got all these variables you've got to put together, and this is why it's so important with my students down the track.

When I teach them but down the track, the ones that experience down the track, to have taken that level of awareness to understand you must always be at point zero. Have absolutely NO preconceived ideas where we're going or what's going to take place with any session. Point zero. Just let your Spirit take you where we need to go to, because it's right every time. It knows where we need to go to. And we keep our head-space totally out of this. That's so important. Because too many people are trying to bring in their head-space or assumptions and their beliefs.

Quite often on the table, I'll say to people, whoa, whoa, stop. Get out of that, that's your head-space. Whoa, hang on, that's your soul, I acknowledge that, get out of the soul, be in the Spirit. And other times lots of life-forms come out and they try to justify why they should exist. The drugs are really good. They often state that they're spiritually aware they's a life-form trying to justify its existence in the being.

Miranda: So it seems that neutrality is very important when doing this work. To not have any baggage or to really just stay level.

Steve: At point zero. Point zero. Point zero, you are the observer of the game at point zero. You're not entering the game, you're an observer of the game. Understanding the game, you observe all the games around you – as an observer. But you don't enter the game. Anybody can be an observer to a game, but do not enter the game. The moment you enter the game, you participate in the game.

Annalie: Can I ask what you do with the entities when you clear them? Like, where do you send these winged-serpents and stuff that come out of me?

Steve: Okay, okay. Okay to understand that, it's understand the game, how to control the game. Now once they're trapped in my game, in my reality, I give them choices. I read them rights. Everything in life has a right to exist and continue existing, but it doesn't have the right to invade another being. If it accepts the terms and conditions to the right, that's a valid agreement.

Remember the first law is the law of intent and the second's the law of agreement, which is valid through time and space for eternity. If he agrees, then I let him go as an observer to the game. To observe and to grow and to learn and to evolve. If he doesn't agree, I lock him in another dimension of time, where he can't get out of the dimension. He can't interfere with this dimension now, he's in another dimension, he's trapped in his own little dimension.

You see, here's an example: I was down in Melbourne. Eleven o'clock at night. Knock, knock, knock. I open the door, some guy there, "please, please, I need a session, I need a session, I've got an entity wants to thrash the place, smash the place, thrash everything to pieces, please, please, please." I said, 'you got rocks in your head. I don't work at night. Come back at eleven o'clock tomorrow.' "Please, please, can we just break the agreement?" So I said, 'ah well, let's go ahead and break the agreement.' So I went and broke the agreement. Three o'clock in the morning I heard 'smash.' And I thought, 'what's that waking me out of bed?' I get up the next morning and the motel door next to me has been kicked in, the motel next door to me had been thrashed. TV's on the floor, you know the bed's tipped upside-down. Clothes everywhere. The guy's wallet's there, his phone's there but smack in the middle of the room was a chair with a plastic bag full of drugs. When I broke the agreement, never cleared it correctly, it jumped straight through the wall, into the guy next door on drugs and jumped into him. Two days later they found him walking naked downtown. It's so important to clear correctly. That was a learned lesson for me.

Miranda: Well 'cause like you said, some of these entities are incredibly violent and you know, have a lot of power. So I can see where that would be important.

Steve: Well look, I, I've had bodies on the table over the years that have been turned into contortions that were impossible for a human body to do. I've had bodies, I'm hanging on to them, and my arms are stretched above my head, full-length, with bodies being thrown into somersaults in the air, I'm still hanging on to them, you know? Look the things that have come through on the -- I've had four massage tables broken in half by these beings over the years. Look some of the big boys that don't want to leave -- big, strong and powerful. But the reality is, they're stuck in my game. I've had so many clients say to me on the table, 'this thing wanted to smash you in the face.' But it couldn't get through the energy. It's knowing how to control the game.

Now I teach my students how to control the game. You have what I call controlled conditions and uncontrolled conditions. We always use controlled conditions. Uncontrolled means that if you're not controlled, whatever's going to come through, you can take on. It must be controlled at all times. That's why you've gotta know what you're doing. This is why it's, to me... I'm not interested in teaching seminar junkies, that's for sure. You know, they're a dime-a-dozen. I'm into teaching people that really want to understand what we're dealing with and how to deal with this correctly. Because this is stuff that HAS to be dealt with correctly.

Randy: I think you're speaking our language here.

Annalie: The part about the interference jumping...I know you probably want to round up here Randy, but I just, that just was so important because I've seen this happen. I was doing the holographic kinetics technique but I had a friend who, you know a lot of us have looked at our astrological charts, and have, you know, wanted to explore what was there to understand the programming aspects. So I brought someone in -- to my actual house -- who was supposedly an expert in this, expert in tarot, and I had that interference jumping. And I discussed this with Steve because five weeks after that, what happened was we had a paranormal event in the house, the basement shook, the upper part of the house shook, the attic shook. It was as though a shockwave came through.

And it ended up later on in a session coming out that his interference, which was Sirian Greys, jumped straight into me. And as soon as I accepted something that he was pushing on me, as soon as I kind of agreed to it, he said, "oh well you're falling into the victim/rescuer/persecutor triangle again," and I said, 'yea, well, I guess so.' As soon as I agreed to that, that's when it jumped, this shockwave hit. And this is why I think it's so important that we get some folks, especially in this country when all this weird stuff is happening -- and I know its happening all over -- who can really do this the right way. Because there's lots of folks out there who say they're good at astrology, they're good at tarot, and then next thing you know you end up with like five more problems than you had before.

And this is where Steve's technique feels so right and has really helped me undo some of the damage that these other alternative practitioners out there who, you know, they're doing hypnotherapy and they're not using a protected environment. They're just letting these entities straight in. And we need to, you know we need to ask the original ones, 'how does this thing work?' Because we have forgotten the rules of the game, you know we've forgotten the lore, and someone else was driving the bus so much. So I just wanted to point that out that that's why, you know we really need to focus on getting the RIGHT tools to do this kind of clearing.

Miranda: I can totally second that Annalie, I can totally second that. Because we, you know, like you said, the insanity is definitely picking up with a lot of this paranormal stuff happening. And we work with people who have gone to shamans for help. And the shamans have been, had entities in them, and then entrapped these people. So, it's... and people don't know how to navigate that morass, which it's become in a lot of ways. Not all across the boards. So I, I hear ya. This, what I really, really like about this is, it, it's not any of that. It's just very healing and positive and solution-based.

Steve: Can I just explain something that you said earlier there? And when you talked about the explosion, your spill on that, not, not meaning to disrespect you, but was an assumption of where you assumed it to be coming from. What I've found has taken place is that, we've had, I've had, seventeen explosions, my students had explosions take place. And I mean some of them have been huge. Like we'd thought the house next door had had a gas bottle explode, it was that loud. Wasn't a gas bottle, just massive explosion took place.

And what I've found is that when we start clearing things hundreds of thousands of years ago, it actually creates a vortex through time up in the present day. And three, four hours, five hours later sometimes you get this mass explosion taking place in the atmosphere as time actually catches up with itself. So what could take place is the fact that, what may've taken place is a time loop catching up on itself, from an event, from one of the sessions, which they may have cleared stuff thousands of years ago.

Annalie: Yea, I have a lot to learn, goodness knows.

Steve: Oh it's been one of those things that I haven't been able to put my finger on what happens. But, I've had seventeen, and I've had other students have the same thing and report it back to me. And the only thing I can look at is time itself, when it goes back and changes itself, it has to come forward through time, through the vortex of time. So it must be creating a vacuum, catching up on itself through the vacuum.

Randy: Okay, I'm, I'm still wrapping my mind around this, I'm going into, like, visualizing this and that's really fairly amazing. Gosh, I'm speechless. That's not supposed to happen. Let's go one more round. If anybody has anything else they want to comment on, question about or, do a follow-up question on, go ahead. And then I think we'll wrap this call for now. Don't all speak at once.

Duncan: Okay. I, uh, hm yea, where to start? Where to finish? I agree. I think we need to start doing some planning and make some things happen. I think we can do that.

Steve: Can I just explain something else that's going on out there too?

Randy: Sure, sure, yea, please.

Steve: And, this is, a lot of the anger that's taken place in time. You know you in America, just like here in this country, I mean in this country, you go back a hundred years ago and you could go and get what was known as an Aboriginal hunting license. And you go out for a quota for a weekend and shoot three or four Aborigines if you wanted. Now what takes place, the Spirit of those Aborigines, because you've killed them, they're full of anger, they jump in the body, of that particular person.

Now the way the universe works is that, you know these men in the past, these white men, in, white bodies, had an issue with black bodies. So they had to come back now, reincarnate into a black body. So then they reincarnate in a black body. But what takes place is they've still got those Spirits attached to them that're full of anger because that trauma was as if it just happened two minutes ago. So what takes place is when these guys go and drink alcohol, and their defenses are down, these Spirits can take over. And they can make you pick a fight with somebody and get your head bashed in, thank you very much. But hang on, you're not drinking alcohol. And there you're not drinking alcohol, but you let someone into your field, into your game that's drinking alcohol. Those Spirits, once they enter the game, can jump into that other person, use that body to bash the daylights out of you, thank you very much. Because that trauma has never been cleared from either party.

Now, in your own country, you had civil war. You had wars. You're going to have trauma of other species, other Spirits there, still stuck in time, in the field of other people. That needs to be cleared. There's a thought.

Miranda: I think we've got our work cut out for us.

Duncan: Yea.

Randy: I also think, I also think we've been given some magnificent tools and some things to think about as well. Steve, I can't thank you enough for coming on, being generous with your time. And you're freely giving away very valuable information and giving us hope that we can begin to roll back the trauma and violence that people suffered for thousands and thousands of years. Annalie, you kind of pulled this thing together in a lot of ways. You have been very much the co-host on this show tonight and I want to thank you. Duncan and Miranda, what can I say? Gosh we have a lot to talk about and we will do that. One more time, Steve, your website and anything that you'd like to close with, for this, for this call?

Steve: Yea, well people can go to my website www.holographickinetics.net and you go have a look around at some unusual cases in there, because I only put unusual ones in there. Now that's only the tip of the iceberg of what we're doing. And also when I'm coming to the States, I will put in the future seminars, where and when that's going to be. But if anyone wants to email me, again, holographickinetics@bigpond.com, then they can. And, we'll go from there.

Randy: Now we'll put this information out when we put the show up on the website as well. We'll give the contact information and the website. And I think that's going to close it out for this time, my head is reeling. And always, we close the show out by saying, 'the truth is out there, it's inside you.' And I think this show proves that point more than I can imagine right now. I'm Randy Maugans, this is Off-Planet Radio.
